

MS

- 1. Our students will be competent in fields of healthcare management content areas.
 - 1-1. Our students will be able to measure population health and determinants.
 - 1-2. Our students will learn about health policy formulation and conduct policy evaluation.
 - 1-3. Our students will understand healthcare management theories.
- 2. Our students will acquire healthcare management skills and apply management concept to current practices.
 - 2-1. Our students will be equipped with analytical & decision making skills in healthcare.
 - 2-2. Our students will have writing, verbal, and interpersonal communication skills in healthcare management.
- 3. Our students will be able to solve problems effectively.
 - 3-1. Our students will be able to identify problems.
 - 3-2. Our students will be able to generate alternatives.
 - 3-3. Our students will be able to develop a solution.
- 4. Our students will be familiar with current practices/ business conducts in international contexts.
 - 4-1. Our students will be able to describe differences in current business practices between different environment (e.g. cultural, legal or social).
 - 4-2. Our students will be able to apply international practices to domestic setting.